

A HIGHER STANDARD

By John P. Hill and ZLAX Publications

Officials are expected to have a higher standard than everyone else

INTEGRITY

- When in doubt, DON'T.
- If it looks wrong, it is wrong.
- Never compromise your principles.
- Don't rationalize.
- Never work a game if a family member is a participant.
- Never work a game on a day in which you have consumed alcohol.
- Never discuss with a coach an upcoming assignment until after your work for the day has been completed.
- Never work for a school you recently attended.
- Avoid social contact with coached for whom you officiate.
- Never publicly criticize a participant.
- Never publicly criticize an officiating partner.